IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS

H1N1 Update:

There has been an unusual number of Sorority women who are presenting to the Health Center with H1N1 symptoms. We are asking all Greek organization to take every precaution to keep your organization safe. If new members are sick, please don't require mandatory attendance at new member events. All scheduled activities must have a level of flexibility to allow for the maximum amount of risk reduction. If you have question please contact Fraternity and Sorority Life at 407-823-2072 or the UCF Health Center at 407.823.3850.

Under Disruptive Conduct (h), Any organization found to be participating in any event with a student organization that is currently on disciplinary probation (with restrictive conditions), has been suspended, or has had their UCF registration revoked, will be in violation of the UCF Golden rule. Please be mindful of this new regulation for all student organizations!

Conduct Update

Beta Theta Pi Fraternity: Suspended from UCF for 2 years

Sigma Chi Fraternity: Restricted probation until end of fall 2009 semester, with their only restriction being no IM sports. Disciplinary probation until end of spring 2009, with no restrictions.

Iota Phi Theta Fraternity: Social Probation until end of fall 2009 semester (no social activities allowed for the organization)

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity: Not recognized as a registered student organization until fall 2010.
